MISSION STATEMENT

AN INTRODUCTION FROM BISHOP PATRICK

Just three years ago in 2019 the diocese celebrated the 50th anniversary of The Briars, our residential centre for young people in Derbyshire. We are very proud of the work over those years that the Directors, staff and volunteers of The Briars have been engaged in with young people, not only at the residential centre but also in outreach to the schools and parishes. The Briars and the outreach work of our Youth Service is certainly a pearl of great price at the very heart of this diocese, but we are also very conscious that we can never become complacent.

We are now looking for a new energetic, prayerful, and reflective Director of Youth Services who can build upon this good tradition and develop and take it to new levels; someone who will work to make the vision and hope for our diocese an ever-stronger reality in everything that the Youth Service does. The vision and hope, dear to my heart, is that people of all ages across this diocese, especially the young in our schools and parishes, will be helped to discover, and to discover more deeply, three important truths: First of all, that they are each loved by God, and that God desires that they are helped to encounter this love in their lives, to know Him, and to develop their own growing personal relationship with Him; secondly, that Christ Jesus is personally calling and inviting them to be his disciples, his co-workers, by putting their faith into action, each day, in little acts of love, kindness and care for others; and, thirdly, that Christ Jesus wants them to be part of his mission in the way they live and the choices they take, and so in the way they bear witness to others of the difference knowing and responding to God's love can make to people's daily lives.

For so many young people their Retreat at The Briars may well be their first time away from home, or even perhaps the first time they have felt 'at home'; felt accepted, affirmed or understood; for some it may be the first time they have felt what God's love is really like – not abstract or distant – but something real and personal, that's lived and shared through prayer, service, sacrifice and compassion. For many The Briars has been a place where, for the first time, the Mass or the Sacrament of Reconciliation has begun to be understood, or where a personal calling from Christ has been sensed, in spite of weaknesses; a calling which in itself inspires a change of heart and mind. It is a place where young people can truly encounter Christ Jesus and hear his call and invitation to become his disciples.

If this rich legacy of The Briars, and the opportunity to help shape the vision of this diocese for young people, fills your heart with a passion to be a part of it, then you are the person we are looking for to apply to become our new Director of Youth Services. We will make you welcome and support you. Thank you for reading this.

Your skill, experience and vision will be crucial to the success of the service and you'll have the privilege of leading and caring for a team of skilled, passionate and talented staff.

NDCYS and The Briars

The first group of Young People arrived at The Briars on September 12th 1969. The original Director Father Paul Klee welcomed one of his classmates Canon Frederick Smythe and the Youth Club from the parish of The Annunciation, Burnt Oak, London, and the scene was set for the next 40 years when thousands of young people would make their way to a centre which centre users themselves often call "The Friendly Place" because of its unique atmosphere.

The story began in the 1960's after Lady Albermarle produced a report on 'The training of part time youth leaders.' Bishop Ellis who was the Bishop of Nottingham at the time saw the problems affecting young people in his Diocese, and commented "Young People had to have the chance of not merely enjoying themselves, but to take part in an apostolate to other Young People," so he started the Diocesan Youth Service. By the mid sixties there was a central group of people working with the Bishop to define the vision of the Youth Service.

They agreed that residential work would play an important role in the training of Young People, so in 1965 they set a target of five years to find and establish a Residential centre for Young People in the Diocese. Ideas came and went, places were visited and turned down until out of the blue a Mr & Mrs Heymans who were running a Quaker vegetarian guest house at Crich decided to retire and put the house in the hands of Messrs, Maynard of Derby who knew of our problem.

From there on things moved fairly fast. The "Adventure in Faith" was on its way. The house was purchased and after some months of preparation and a lot of voluntary hard labour by local people we opened and began our apostolate to Young People .

In 2019 we celebrated our 50th anniversary and in 2021 we completed large scale renovations to upgrade our accommodation.

NDCYS is stronger and better than ever and we're excited for you to be a part of it.

What defines a practicing Catholic?

The Church's general obligations for its members require that they strive to live lives of holiness by being faithful to the teaching of the Gospel, by trying to uphold the values proclaimed in the Beatitudes, by assisting in the Church's mission to make Christ known to all peoples, by upholding privately and publicly the Church's moral and social teaching, by endeavouring to follow an informed conscience and by making every effort to keep the precepts of the Church. This is the 'practice' of the Catholic faith in its widest and all encompassing sense. At the heart of these general obligations though, there are essential components for "full communion" with the Catholic Church. These are sacramental initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist) and the bonds of profession of faith, the sacraments and ecclesiastical governance. The preservation of this full communion is not limited to purely religious activity but is to be an integral part of the whole pattern of behaviour of a member of the Church. It is what essentially constitutes being a committed and 'practising Catholic'.
